

Public Universities

Kentucky's four-year public universities have many sources of financial aid. KHEAA contacts these universities every year so we can publish the most up-to-date information about their programs, which are described in this section.

In addition to the programs listed under each university, all of Kentucky's public universities participate in the following state and federal student aid programs:

State: College Access Program Grant, Kentucky National Guard programs, Vocational Rehabilitation, Early Childhood Development Scholarship, Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship, Public Child Welfare Certificate Program Scholarship, and state waivers. Detailed information about these programs can be found in the State Government section.

Federal: Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Federal Direct Loan, Federal PLUS Loan, Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant, Veterans Administration programs and Federal Work-Study. Detailed information about these programs can be found in the Federal Government section.

College of Agriculture, Food and Environment

For all CAFE scholarships, entering freshmen must apply by December 1, and continuing/transfer students must apply by April 1. Students who complete the College of Agriculture, Food and Environment scholarship application are considered for all listed scholarships for which they meet appropriate criteria.

Eligibility: In addition to any criteria under a specific scholarship, must be a full-time student and major in the College of Agriculture, Food and Environment.

Award: Varies, based on budgets each year, but typical awards range from $750–$2,000 for the academic year. Awards are automatically credited to the student's financial aid account with the university and are split evenly between the fall and spring semesters of the academic year. Awards are for 1 year, and students must reapply each year.

Contact: Center for Student Success, N6 Agriculture Science Center, University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY 40546, 859.257.3469. Applications are available at <http://students.ca.uky.edu/scholarships>.
