

Approved Locations for KEES Qualified Workforce Training Programs

For qualified workforce trainees to be considered for KEES reimbursement, they must be enrolled at a training location that has an articulation agreement for postsecondary credit hours with a KEES-participating college or university.

The training providers and programs listed below have been approved by KHEAA for KEES reimbursement purposes:

Enzweiler Building Institute / Homebuilders Association of Northern Kentucky

- HVAC education program
- Electrical program
- Welding program