FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Matt Jones joins KHEAA as outreach counselor

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Jan. 21, 2016) — Matt Jones is the new far western outreach counselor for the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA).

He will work with students, families, schools and other groups in Ballard, Caldwell, Calloway, Carlisle, Crittenden, Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Livingston, Lyon, Marshall, McCracken and Trigg counties.

“I am excited to join KHEAA,” he said. “Western Kentucky is home to me, and I’m thrilled to have the opportunity to work with students and families in this area. I look forward to providing support and guidance to them in their educational journey.”

In addition to schools, Jones will work with adult education centers, state agencies and other groups. He can be reached at mjones@kheaa.com or (270) 498-8291.

“We are thrilled to welcome Matt to the KHEAA outreach team,” KHEAA Director of Outreach Services Susan Hopkins said. “His varied campus experiences and passion for working with students will make him a tremendous asset in our college access and success work.”

Jones has a bachelor’s in music business and master’s in human development and leadership from Murray State University. Before joining KHEAA, he was a recruitment officer at Murray State.

KHEAA is the state agency that administers the Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES), need-based grants and other programs to help students pay their higher education expenses.
