FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Emily Bowman joins KHEAA as outreach counselor for southeastern Kentucky

FRANKFORT, Ky. (June 11, 2019) — Emily Bowman has joined the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA) as an outreach counselor helping students and families in southeastern Kentucky.

“I have partnered with KHEAA Outreach as a college coach for three years and deeply respect the impact KHEAA services make on students,” she said. “KHEAA does amazing work for students and schools all over the state, and I am honored to join its ranks. I want to help students in southeastern Kentucky prepare for life beyond high school.”

In addition to schools, Bowman will work with adult education centers, state agencies and other groups. She can be reached at ebowman@kheaa.com or (606) 273-9644.

“KHEAA is very fortunate to have Emily joining the Outreach team. She’s done wonderful work as a Kentucky College Coach,” KHEAA Director of Outreach Services Kim Dolan said, “and we have no doubt that she will be a great asset to the schools, students and families in the southeastern area of the state.”

Bowman is a native of Corbin and a graduate of Lynn Camp High School and Eastern Kentucky University. Before being named an outreach counselor, she volunteered for AmeriCorps as a college coach at Lynn Camp.

KHEAA is the state agency that administers the Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES), need-based grants and other programs to help students pay their higher education expenses.
