Money Tip for Students, April 2022

KHEAA website promotes financial literacy

FRANKFORT, Ky. (April 4, 2022) — Kentuckians interested in financial literacy can find information and links to interactive games on the website of the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA).

“Young children who play interactive games can learn about financial literacy while they’re having fun,” said Gov. Andy Beshear. “Teaching kids the basics about money early in life will help them learn how to work hard toward their goals, from their first chores, to their first job, all the way into their career.”

Games and other information can be found on kheaa.com under the Money Management tab.

The page provides links to information about budgeting, saving and borrowing that are suitable for older students. Younger children can find links to games that teach them about money and personal finance.

KHEAA is the agency that administers the state’s grant and scholarship programs, including the Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES). The agency also provides free copies of “It’s Money, Baby,” a guide to financial literacy, to Kentucky schools and residents upon request at publications@kheaa.com.

Many of KHEAA’s student aid programs are funded by Kentucky Lottery receipts.

In addition, KHEAA disburses private Advantage Education Loans for its sister agency, the Kentucky Higher Education Student Loan Corporation (KHESLC). For more information about Advantage Education Loans, visit advantageeducationloan.com.
